Holy Rosary Latin Mass Community is a community of the faithful of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati established to serve all those who desire to experience the richness of the Church's liturgical and spiritual tradition, as provided for by Pope Benedict XVI in his motu proprio Summorum Pontificum. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and all the Sacraments are celebrated according to the extraordinary form of the Roman Rite.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ascension Thursday — May 13
 Although this feast is not a day of obligation in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, it is one of the most important feasts in the liturgical year, and so we will have a High Mass at 7 PM at Our Lady of the Rosary.

Conference on Fertility Technology
 The Dayton/Cincinnati Guild of the Catholic Medical Association is sponsoring a conference on "Assisted Reproductive Technologies: Theology and Science." The presentation will be May 19, 2010, at 6:30 p.m. in the Sears Recital Hall at the University of Dayton. This presentation will address fundamental moral issues related to fertility care and will explain methods of treatment that are morally acceptable.

Vocations Event in Nebraska, May 21-24
 An event has been organized for boys and girls of high school age who are interested in the priesthood and religious life during the weekend of our priestly ordinations in Nebraska. The boys and the girls will have separate activities planned during which they will be able to meet various priests and male and female religious (obviously of a more traditional observance) and learn more about the priesthood or consecrated life. For more details, please consult our website or contact the chaplain.

Easter Duty — Yes, this does apply to you!
From the Code of Canon Law:
Can. 920 §1. After being initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, each of the faithful is obliged to receive holy communion at least once a year.
§2. This precept must be fulfilled during the Easter season unless it is fulfilled for a just cause at another time during the year.
Can. 989 After having reached the age of discretion, each member of the faithful is obliged to confess faithfully his or her grave sins at least once a year.
 If you feel that you are not bound by this law for any reason, please address your concerns to the chaplain.
