Announcements for September 11, 2016

Today is the 15th anniversary of the terrorist attacks on the Twin Towers of New York and on the Pentagon in Wash. DC. Another plane, through the courage of the Americans on board, crashed in a Pennsylvania field. Let us remember all those who died that day and let us pray for our country. Will we bow our knee to God and ask for His mercy during the Year of Mercy or will God allow our enemies to bring us to our knees for our many sins against His commandments?

The choice is ours.

The Seventeenth Sunday After Pentecost

In today's Gospel, (Mt 22:35-46) one of the Pharisees asks Jesus "Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?" our Lord answers, "Thou shall love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul and with thy whole mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. And the second is like it. Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the prophets."

Today's message for each of us today is that we must love God above all things. After all He loves us with an INFINITE LOVE! We are also called to love everyone for God's sake in that God loves all people –yes even sinners like us! Like God we must love the sinner but hate the sin. Pray for another!

Luann Simon—Requiescat in Pace!

In your kindness please remember in your prayers the repose of the soul of Luann Simon who died in a tragic accident last Friday in Fort Wayne, IN. She is the first cousin of Fr. Gabet. Let us recall that to pray for the living and the dead is a spiritual work of mercy. Thank you in advance for praying for her in this Year of Mercy! Here is a prayer you may pray for her:

“Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Amen!”
