3rd Sunday of Advent Gaudete Sunday!

As you can tell by the altar flowers, rose vestments and the rose candle burning in the Advent Wreath, today is Gaudete Sunday. "Gaudete" is the Latin imperative form of the verb "to rejoice".

"Rejoice in the Lord always again I say rejoice". Quite astonishing words when we realize that St. Paul wrote them from a prison cell in Rome!

The joy St. Paul urges the Philippians—and us today—to practice is the spiritual joy which comes from the knowledge that as Catholics we are incorporated into the Mystical Body of Christ whose present gifts of grace and promise of future glory are sufficient at all times to secure a ready and joyful acceptance of God's will in adversity as well as prosperity. St. Paul rejoices in prison because his chains have turned out to be the means of spreading the Gospel to others and therefore a means to his own salvation as well.

In the Gospel we see the ominous figure of St. John the Baptist back from last Sunday's Gospel. Holy Mother Church presents him to us again in order to keep before our eyes the fact that Advent is a season of preparation for the coming of the Lord at Christmas AND at the end of time. The words of the Baptist shout out across the miles and the millennia, "make straight the way of the Lord!" These words should find a joyful response in our hearts today. The Jews at the time of Christ were looking for a worldly Messiah who would give them the good things here on earth. A king born in a stable and a crucified king they could not accept. How blessed we are to have the sacraments—especially the Holy Eucharist—that give us the grace to see that it is the eternal and heavenly joys that we seek. Like St. John the Baptist the Church is a lonely voice, a single voice crying in the desert "make straight the way of the Lord! It is NOT the holidays that we celebrate but the birth of our Redeemer and Eternal King.

It is indeed a far cry from Bethany beyond the Jordan to Dayton, Ohio and nearly twenty-one centuries separate us from today's scriptures but the voices of St. John and St. Paul in chains still call to us across time and space: "the Lord is near", "make straight the way of the Lord". So let us "Rejoice in the Lord always" and "May the peace of God which surpasses all understanding guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus our Lord".

ADVENT GIVING TREE

During this season of advent we are sponsoring a giving tree to collect needed items for Dayton Right to Life's Baby Pantry. The baby pantry supports the most needy mothers, fathers, and babies in our community by providing babies and children with basic necessities when they cannot provide for themselves. Tags will be placed on a tree in the back of the church and on a tree in the basement. Please choose a tag (or 2, or 3, or more!!) and donate the item listed. You can place the items in the bins in the basement during the entire month of December and through January 8th. Please do not wrap the gifts so that they may be sorted. Thank you for your support and for helping those in need!

Adopted Family—Angel Tree

Those who took envelopes from the tree please attach the envelope to the OUTSIDE of the package (gift wrapped or not) and return near the tree or in the baskets in the basement. These gifts must be returned by Dec 17th so we can get them to grandma by Christmas Eve! Thank you and God bless you for your kindness!
