Septuagesima Sunday

According to the liturgical calendar for the Extraordinary Form today is Septuagesima Sunday. The Season of Septuagesima is the two and a half weeks leading to Ash Wednesday which is the beginning of Lent, also known as "Quadragesima". Today we see the liturgical emphasis ceases to be upon the joys of Christ's birth—as you have no doubt noticed the absence of the beautiful nativity scene and the Baby Jesus- which now gives way to the realization of why He came to earth and the heavy price the Christ Child will have to pay in order to redeem us. We heard it foretold to the Blessed Mother by Holy Simeon on the Feast of the Purification— "Behold this child is destined for the fall and for the rise of many in Israel and for a sign that shall be contradicted. And thy own soul a sword shall pierce that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed" (LK 2: 34-35).

The Season of Septuagesima is therefore a preparation for Lent. It serves as a time of transition, a liturgical "buffer", by which the Christian soul may pass from Christmas joys to the stern penance of the sacred forty days. Liturgically we see the white vestments of Christmas and Epiphany, symbols of joy, change into the penitential color of violet. We also notice the absence of the "Gloria" on Sundays and feria days of the season as well as the total suppression of the "Alleluia" throughout the season until it is sung again three times at the Easter Vigil demonstrating the great joy of the Resurrection of Our Lord and His victory over sin and death!

This liturgical Season of Septuagesima invites us to begin thinking about what we are going to give up and what we are going to do positively (adoration, prayers, alms, works of mercy, spiritual reading etc.) during this coming Lent for the love of Our Dear Lord who came into the world that first Christmas with the sole purpose to suffer and die for love of us!

Church Bulletin Typos

Last Sunday we listed one of the CMA ministries as St. Rita's School for the "Dead". It should have read "Deaf"! Sorry for the typo. Holy Family is a Pro—Life Parish! Here are a few other funny bulletin typos:

-Due to the Rector's illness, Wednesday's healing services will be discontinued until further notice.

-A worm welcome to all who have come today.

-Potluck supper: prayer and medication to follow.
