The Tenth Sunday After Pentecost

Today's parable ranks with the Prodigal Son and the Good Samaritan in its popularity and in clearly teaching a moral truth. In particular it warns us to avoid pride and to practice true humility and in so doing teaches us how to pray effectively. The hypocrisy of the Pharisee who puts on a veneer of sanctity to cover up a heart of pride has caused the name "pharisee" to be synonymous with "hypocrite" in languages throughout the world from the time of Jesus even to today. This man attributes nothing to God. His "prayer" asks nothing of God. He glories in his own good works which he loudly proclaims before men. He rejoices in the fact that he is not like the rest of men, after all God must love him better (at least in his own mind!) The Tax Collector on the other hand is the very symbol of humility. With head bowed, with a contrite heart, he recognizes his guilt—not his talents or good works—and feels true remorse and contrition for his sins. But with the virtues of faith, hope and love, inspired by the Holy Spirit whom St. Paul calls the "Source of All Good" in today's epistle, the Tax Collector humbly yet confidently asks pardon of his Heavenly Father, beats his breast and PRAYS: "Have mercy on me THE sinner" It is the humble repentant sinner whose prayer is granted!

SPECIAL EVENTS TODAY!

1) August 13th—100th Anniversary of Fatima!

There was no apparition at Fatima in August because 100 years ago today the three little children were being terrorized by the communist magistrate to renounce that they had seen Our Lady and the secrets she gave them on July 13th. Yet NOTHING—not even the threat of death itself - could make these children deny Our Lady! Pope Francis has granted a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions for anyone participating in public prayers (Our Father, Apostles Creed and invocation of Our Lady of Fatima) before a statue of Our Lady of Fatima on the 13th of each month from May to October inclusive. We will be offering these prayers after the homily at both masses today honoring the 100th anniversary of the sufferings endured by the children and also showing our love for Our Lady!

PRAY THE ROSARY DAILY FOR PEACE!

2) Welcome John Edward Heckman!

John Edward, still “fresh from God”, will be baptized after the 8AM Mass. Congratulations to the Mike and Krista Heckman family and the newest member of our Holy Family!
