The Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

In today's epistle, Gal 5:25– 6:10, St Paul admonishes US "while we have time let us do good to all men". Even if someone is caught doing something wrong we cannot gossip about them but rather we should pray for them realizing that we are not perfect either. If someone has done something to harm us or even just something that annoys us let us remember the words are Lord Himself worked into the Our Father whereby we set the limits on how much God forgives us by how we forgive others "forgive us our trespasses (how much?) as we forgive those who trespass against us!" By forgiving others we show that the Holy Ghost is indeed alive in us. Blessed are the Merciful for they shall obtain mercy!

We must never forget that we are not just individuals making our lonely way towards heaven but rather we are members of the Mystical Body of Christ. What have we done to strengthen that Body? Are we praying for one another? Are we willing to do our part to build up the Church? I was told when I played football that we were only as strong as our weakest player. We were only as fast as our slowest teammate. Are we encouraging one another or do we prefer to just criticize on another? God forbid that would happen within the Holy Family Parish! So let us follow St Paul by first of all being good Catholics ourselves and then helping one another by act, word, example and most importantly through prayer! Let us get to heaven together!

Welcome Fr. Saguto!

Our North American District Superior was passing through Ohio on his way home from a wedding and has asked to offer his Mass with us today! He has kindly accepted our invitation to the parish picnic as well!

Hurricane Relief Second Collection

Thanks so much to all who gave so generously last week for the victims of Hurricanes Harvey and/or Irma! We raised $3,350 between the two masses! We will first see which of our apostolates needs it the most or divide it between Houston and our Florida Apostolates. Again THANK YOU FOR YOUR GREAT GENEROSITY!!
