Twenty Fourth and Last Sunday

After Pentecost

Today marks the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year. In the Gospel Our Lord Himself tells us “the stars will fall from heaven and the powers of heaven will be shaken.” Bible scholars are divided as to the object of Jesus’ words. Some hold they concern the end of the world while others say they apply to the destruction of Jerusalem which occurred in 70AD under Titus. However, the vast majority see that Our Lord speaks simultaneously of BOTH destructions since the severe chastisement of Jerusalem, which rejected its Messiah, is indeed a symbol of the eternal punishment which will be rendered to all people who have rejected their Divine Redeemer. Not a stone will be left upon a stone! What a dreadful sight of desolation of a temple once so beautifully and wonderfully made!

Before that day of judgement Our Lord tells of false prophets, false Christs, who will try to drag us away from the barque of Peter either by being too lenient or by pretending to be better than Christ’s Church. We certainly have an abundance of both kinds today all claiming to be of the Flock while rejecting the True Shepherd. Our Lord also foretells of the celestial signs. For the ancients the stars were something unchangeable, constant, something stable that could always be relied upon. Now He could have been speaking literally here of the celestial stars and planets or He could also be speaking allegorically of the Natural Laws which were also something one could count on. Today we see that many of these stars have fallen in our nation. Who would have ever thought a nation would make the killing of an unborn child a “right”, or the tearing up of the family unit which started with Adam and Eve by a writ of divorce or, as we see in our nation today, two people of the same gender being “married”? The stars have fallen from the heavens! Could this be the end? Are YOU ready?

Please Pray for the Sick of the Parish!

Let us especially remember Lillie Vitale who was diagnosed with Leukemia. We are praying a novena of an Our Father and Hail Mary in honor of Blessed Solanus Casey and in Thanksgiving to God. Please join us! Please also remember Carol, Helen, Charlie, Ron and Joy that God may heal them of their sufferings.

THANK YOU GENEROUS PARISHIONERS!

On this Thanksgiving Holiday weekend we give thanks to God for all our generous benefactors who by their financial and spiritual sacrifices keep Holy Family in the black with extra to put away! This year we especially are thankful for all who gave so generously to the Air Conditioning project! It will certainly be appreciated into the future! May God bless and reward abundantly all who pray and give so generously to Holy Family!!

First Friday / First Saturday

Just a reminder that this week will be the first Friday and Saturday of the month of December. Recall the promises of Our Lord and Lady respectively for fulfilling these devotions in reparation for sins—an ETERNITY IN HEAVEN! First Friday confessions begin at 6:30 PM with Mass at 7PM. On Saturday exposition /rosary/confessions begin at 8 AM and Mass at 9AM. Please plan on attending not only for your own soul and family but also for the soul of our country!
