FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

In today's Gospel, our Lord reminds us that we cannot serve two masters. We cannot serve God and mammon (worldly riches that become our purpose for living). Each one of us must make a decision. Do we prefer temporary earthly pleasures that cannot bring us a true and lasting happiness or will we live our lives for the eternal joys of heaven that which alone can be our true and lasting happiness? Our thoughts, actions and the fruits of those actions which St. Paul mentions in the epistle, reveal which choice we have made. Are we living for Christ or for ourselves? Let us recall that if we live for ourselves we fall by default into the hands of the devil who is much stronger than us. If we turn our backs on an all Good God by placing worldly goods, persons, honor, power as our last end we will find evil, the absence of good, and be under the devil's dominion. Why would anyone choose that over heaven? Yet our Lord tells us "for wide is the gate that leadeth to destruction and MANY there are who go in thereat" MT7:13. Let us therefore use the things of this world only as a means to get to heaven not our end. St Therese, the Little Flower, suffered much but was still joyful because she knew "the earth's my ship, NOT my home" and lived accordingly. Let us serve God as she did so we too may enjoy His face as she does now—forever!

True Devotion to Mary

This book is by far the greatest treatise on Mary ever written. It clearly illustrates who Our Blessed Mother is in relation to God and also her powerful intercession for us. It is also a preparation for consecrating oneself to her in order to more easily reach her Son. We will be consecrating or reconsecrating ourselves to her on Dec 8th with the 33 day preparation beginning Nov.5th. Be sure to read this book!

CHOIR—HE WHO SINGS PRAYS TWICE!

As the summer comes to a close, the choir is gearing up once again for a new season of liturgical singing of sacred chant and polyphony beginning at the 10:30 mass Sept. 9th. The first practice is Wednesday September 5th at 6:15pm followed by a workshop on September 8th at 10AM. Regular practices continue on Wednesday evenings throughout the year. We are always looking for new members to join us. Please prayerfully consider if you are being called to give of your time and talents for the glory of God in this way. No prior experience or tryouts are necessary to join. We especially need men's voices for both chant and part singing. Chanting in the choir is a wonderful way to grow in your faith and deepen your understanding of liturgy. Go to www.cantusfamiliae.org and contact the choir director, Amanda Gulick at 174gulick@gmail.com for more information.
