The Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

In today's epistle, Gal 5:25– 6:10, St Paul tells us: "God will not be mocked. For what a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows in the flesh from the flesh he will also reap corruption." How timely is this epistle as revelations have been uncovered about Cardinal McCarrick. Perhaps he thought he would get away with the evil he has done. Let us pray that there will be a cleansing of the Church, the Mystical Bride of Christ, from the top down to each and every member. Let us start with the man in the mirror. We do not wish to be a blemish on the wedding gown of the Bride of Christ! Let us pray for the Holy Father. Remember that although he is infallible when speaking of faith and morals from the Chair of St. Peter, this does not make him impeccable, unable to sin. The Holy Father goes to confession once a week— not because he is a terrible sinner but because he knows he needs to strive to be perfect as our Heavenly father is perfect. Let us pray for him, all the cardinals, bishops and priests, that the good shepherds—the vast majority—would be protected but the bad wolves would be cleansed from the magisterium of the Church. God permits evil only that a greater good might come from it! How great it would be to have a purified Hierarchy in the Mystical Body of Christ!

We must never forget that we too are members of the Mystical Body of Christ. What have we done to strengthen that Body? Are we praying for one another? Are we willing to do our part to build up the Church? Some will use the present scandals to criticize the Church and even to stop going to Mass. We must remind them DO NOT LEAVE ST.PETER BECAUSE OF JUDAS! There have always been saints and sinners in the Church. But in the end She will be spotless! The gates of hell shall NOT prevail against her!

TRUE DEVOTION TO MARY

Thanks to a parish family more of these books—the greatest treatise on Mary—are available. The actual 30 day preparation does not begin until Nov.5th but it is imperative that we know what this consecration is all about. Actual consecration or reconsecration will be Dec. 8th!

WEDDING BANNERS II

James Warner & Christina Hess

Please keep this couple in your prayers!

TODAY —K of C Seminarian Donations

The Knights of Columbus will be collecting donations for FSSP seminarians at the Coffee & Donuts and potluck after both Masses. If you want your donation to be tax deductible please make out checks to Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary. Thank you and God bless you!

Happy Labor Day Weekend!!

This is a national holiday to honor the achievements of workers who built this great nation. It allows most of us to celebrate with family and friends the fruits of our labor. This labor day let us THANK GOD for our ability to work and our good health to accomplish our tasks. Let us pray for those who are without work due to sickness or physical disability. May all our work be done for the greater glory of God! St. Joseph the Worker—Pray for us!

Labor Day Mass will be at 9AM!

NATIONAL NOVENA FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF HUMAN LIFE - Archbishop

Schnurr urges our participation EACH FRIDAY in a nationwide Novena for the Legal Protection of Human Life that began Friday, Aug. 3 & extends to Sept. 28. Participants are asked to fast & pray for a PROLIFE/PROFAMILY Supreme Court! HEARINGS BEGIN THIS TUESDAY!!

CHOIR—HE WHO SINGS PRAYS TWICE!

The choir is gearing up once again for a new season of liturgical singing of sacred chant and polyphony beginning at the 10:30 mass Sept. 9th. The first practice is Wednesday September 5th at 6:15pm followed by a workshop on September 8th at 10AM. Regular practices continue on Wednesday evenings throughout the year. We are always looking for new members to join us. No prior experience or tryouts are necessary to join. We especially need men's voices for both chant and part singing. Chanting in the choir is a wonderful way to grow in your faith and deepen your understanding of liturgy.
