Fifth Sunday After Epiphany Resumed

In today's Gospel, Mt 13:24-30, we read the parable of the Wheat and the Cockle. It reminds us of Satan, his demons and those souls who deny God, refuse His grace and mercy and instead attack the good relentlessly. We ask "why does God allow evil?" and "why does it seem the good suffer while the wicked appear to prosper"? Holy Mother Church teaches us that although God did not create evil, just like the farmer did not sow the cockle (weeds) into his field, He does allow evil to exist but only that a greater good might come from it. God allows the devil, his demons and the wicked to tempt and try the just in many ways but always within the limits set by God. He always gives us all the grace we need to conquer sin IF we choose to use that grace! The wheat in the parable was still able to bear good fruit - and so can we!!!

This account also demonstrates the patience of God. He allows the wheat and the weeds to grow together to test the strength of the wheat but also, unlike nature, He knows some of those weeds can become wheat and bear good fruit! We have the examples of the Good Thief, St. Mary Magdalene and St. Augustine who prove that patience, mercy and the grace of God can work miracles!

Yes, the wicked might seem to be triumphing in our world today but the time of the harvest is coming! At the Last Judgement the wheat and the cockle will be separated forever! Where will we end up—in the fire or in the barn where evil will be no more?!

HAPPY VETERANS DAY!

Thank s so much to all who made his funeral so special! Thanks again to the choir, the altar servers and the Altar Rosary Society who prepared the banquet following the burial. What a blessing to be able to provide all this for the grieving family as well as all the events that were done with so much love and grace. THANK YOU!

Choir Loft Project Update

A meeting was held last Wednesday to continue work on the choir loft project. The old wind cabinet had been removed during the summer. Architect William Heyer with George Kochanski has come up with a plan to move back the decorative wall in order to make much needed room for the choir. A painter who is especially well versed in the exquisite painting of Gerhard Lamers, whose expert artistry we enjoy throughout the church, will be making sure the beauty of the walls will be maintained. A cabinet unit heater will be installed to keep the members of the choir warm during the cold winter. LVT tile, which is more conducive to sound, will replace the carpet once the flooring is repaired. And a specialist will aid in improving the lighting for our choir. We anticipate the work to begin at the end of this month when we enter into Advent as the organ will not be needed during that time. Please join us in praying that all goes smoothly that we might enjoy a wonderfully refurbished choir loft by Christmas!

It was so good to see so many of the Part One booklets have been taken from the entrances of the church! These first 12 days are spent in prayer and spiritual reading to "Free ourselves from the spirit of the world". This will end on Friday, Nov. 16th and Part Two of the preparation, "Knowledge of Ourselves" begins on Sat., Nov 17th, so be sure to pick up the Part Two booklets also located at the entrances. AD JESUM PER MARIAM!
