The Tenth Sunday After Pentecost

Today's parable ranks with the Prodigal Son and the Good Samaritan in its popularity and in clearly teaching a moral truth. In particular it warns us to avoid pride and to practice true humility and in so doing teaches us how to pray effectively. The hypocrisy of the Pharisee who puts on a veneer of sanctity to cover up a heart of pride has caused the name "pharisee" to be synonymous with "hypocrite" in languages throughout the world from the time of Jesus even to today. This man attributes nothing to God. His "prayer" asks nothing of God. He glories in his own good works which he loudly proclaims before men. He rejoices in the fact that he is not like the rest of men, after all God must love him better(at least in his own mind!) The Tax Collector on the other hand is the very symbol of humility. With head bowed, with a contrite heart, he recognizes his guilt –not his talents or good works– and feels true remorse and contrition for his sins. But with the virtues of faith, hope and love, inspired by the Holy Spirit whom St. Paul calls the "Source of All Good" in today's epistle, the Tax Collector humbly yet confidently asks pardon of his Heavenly Father, beats his breast and PRAYS: "Have mercy on me THE sinner"

It is the humble repentant sinner whose prayer is granted and who walks out of the temple justified!!

September 29th

Parish Picnic

Save-the-date for the parish picnic, Sunday, Sept. 29 at Taylorsville Metro Park from 12-4!

Consecration of Holy Family Parish to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Mary, Virgin most powerful and Mother of mercy, Queen of Heaven and Refuge of sinners, we consecrate ourselves to thine Immaculate Heart.

We consecrate to thee our very being and our whole life; all that we have, all that we love, all that we are. To thee we give our bodies, our hearts and our souls; to thee we give our homes, our families, our country.

We desire that all that is in us and around us may belong to thee, and may share in the benefits of thy motherly benediction. And that this act of consecration may be truly efficacious and lasting, we renew this day at thy feet the promises of our Baptism and our first Holy Communion.

We pledge ourselves to profess courageously and at all times the truths of our holy Faith, and to live as befits Catholics who are duly submissive to all the directions of the Pope and the Bishops in communion with him.

We pledge ourselves to keep the commandments of God and His Church, in particular to keep holy the Lord's Day.

We likewise pledge ourselves to make the consoling practices of the Christian religion, and above all, Holy Communion, an integral part of our lives, in so far as we shall be able so to do. (Thursday is her feast day!)

WHO WANTS TO BE A HERO?

We need someone who would be responsible for picking up the donuts and milk for the 8AM mass on first Sundays.

One year commitment with possibility of substitution. That makes 12 Sundays with possibility of renewal! Donuts are paid for by donations so no financial cost just your time and talent. Call the office or contact Father if interested! Like all religious ministries the pay is not so good but the benefits are out of this world!!

Repairs and Improvements

Recently we got a little "closer to God" taking a lift to the roof to replace broken tiles that allowed a leak in the remodeled choir loft as well as other places! Since we fixed the problem quickly no damage was done. We also raised the cement near the parish hall steps 3 inches to help prevent flooding. Patches to crumbling concrete around the church were also made using the rebate money from the One Faith, One Hope , One Love Campaign.
