First Sunday of Advent

“Brethren, know that it is now the hour to rise from sleep because now our salvation is nearer than when we came to believe. “
How perfect this reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans is for us on this 1st Sunday of Advent, the first day of a new liturgical year. Holy Mother Church wants us to wake up and realize the important task we are now engaged in, namely our eternal salvation! We too like the Roman converts have wasted too much time and have offended our heavenly Father much too often. We live as if this life will go on forever. But the reality is that the night is far advanced, our days in this world are indeed limited and are swiftly passing. However, we still have time to decide where we will spend our eternity. This holy season of Advent, a word which means “a coming” or “a visitation”, is meant not only to prepare us for Christ’s coming at Christmas, an event that occurred some 2019 years ago, which we will celebrate this coming Dec 25th, but even more importantly it is to prepare us for Christ’s second coming! Today’s gospel contains Our Lord’s own description of that Second Coming. On that day we will have to face Christ coming not as a little baby but in “power and majesty”. On that day our innermost faults will be made known and our every unforgiven sin will shout out in testimony against us. Such a sobering thought should cause us to see TODAY as an opportunity to confess those sins and make up for them while we still can! This is the whole idea of Advent—PREPARATION FOR THE COMING OF CHRIST—PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE!

Advent used to be called “Little Lent” as attested by the violet vestments, lack of flowers and silence of the organ. In lieu of the chaos happening in our nation, in the Church (Amazon Synod) and within ourselves let us endeavor to make a “Little Lent” this Advent!

Next Sunday Immaculate conception/St. Nicholas/
Potluck—NO POTLUCK TODAY!

LITTLE LENT IDEAS:

- 2) Pray one rosary per day in reparation for sin
- 3) Lenten fast at least one day a week
(only one full meal with meat unless it is Friday, two meatless meals if needed, NO SNACKING!!)
- 4) daily mortify the flesh with exercise
(walk or run or cardio or strength workout)
and /or some other penance such as giving up a certain food or drink you especially like, quitting any bad habits, keep off facebook or games or texting unnecessarily
- 5) Before going to bed each night make a short examination of conscience and act of contrition
- 6) receive the sacraments of Holy Communion daily if possible and confession at least once per month.
