Eighth Sunday After Pentecost

Today's Gospel is the Parable of the Unjust Steward. Our Lord calls to our mind that there will indeed be a day of reckoning. Are we prepared for that day? If we take the scripture literally we could think Jesus is actually telling us it is okay to break the 7th and 8th commandments. But taken in context of all the scriptures we see that this is indeed NOT the case. After all Jesus as God wrote the commandments. He cannot encourage sin! In the parable the master commends the steward not for his lying and stealing but for his cunning and his foresight to prepare for the future! He tells US today—BE PREPARED!

We are stewards of God's gifts. He has given us body, soul and intellect to use according to His intentions. We can squander these gifts or use them for His greater glory but we too shall have a day of reckoning. And it is nearer than we think! We will be called to render an account of our stewardship of God's gifts. Have we used them wisely as true children of God who know the true purpose of life—to know, to love, to serve God in this life so we can be happy with Him forever in the next? While we still have time we can put our accounts in order. We can erase all our past mistakes and dishonest acts with a true, sincere confession, penances, reception of the sacraments and indulgences that Mother Church offers us. We can prepare ourselves for that day by surrendering our earthly freedom to God, by living as His children so that we will be able to stand before Him, the Just Judge, when the time comes. How sweet to hear those words God will say to those who have served Him: "well done good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Master!"

The Good Thief, just before his death was able to take advantage of Christ's presence next to Him and while everyone else was mocking and spitting on Him St. Dismas declares Him King and asks a share of His Kingdom. And he hears those most wonderful words "This day you SHALL BE WITH ME IN PARADISE!" Let us too take advantage of the presence of Jesus WITHIN US TODAY! Let us too STEAL HEAVEN!

GOD BLESS YOU!!

FIRST COMMUNION TODAY!

Today is the BIG day for our first communion class. Due to the Covid -19 pandemic and Fr. Gabet's car accident our young people have had to wait an extra long time this year to finally receive our Lord. They have indeed earned the superlative as being "the Most Patient Class". It was certainly worth the wait!

Yesterday they were enrolled in the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and are now are part of the Confraternity of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel with all its privileges and graces. They then received their second sacrament, the sacrament of penance in which the Blood of Christ washed away their sins so they could receive HIM all the more worthily TODAY! PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR FIRST COMMUNICANTS !!

INDULGENCES!!

Just a reminder that anyone assisting at the Mass where someone receives their first Communion can receive a plenary indulgence—the remittance of ALL punishment due to sins already confessed, under the usual conditions of sacramental communion, penance, prayer for the Pope and detachment from all sins. Holy Mother Church sees this day as that important !

Portiuncula Indulgence– Next Sunday Aug.2

August 2nd is the feast of Portiuncula. A plenary indulgence is available to anyone who will

- 1. Receive sacramental confession*
- 2. Receive the Holy Eucharist at Mass on Aug. 2nd*
- 3. Enter a parish church and, with a contrite heart, pray the Our Father & Apostles Creed,*

4. Pray for the Pope

5 Detachment from all sin
