“ Be renewed in the spirit of your mind and put on the new man which has been created according to God”. These words from the epistle certainly are applicable to their author, St. Paul and to us following this tough year! But let us not be overcome by evil but overcome evil with good! In everyone’s life there comes a day when we receive a special gift from God—a calling— an invitation. For St. Paul it was on the road to Damascus when Our Lord knocked him off of his high horse and said “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?” Saul answered the call and even changed his name to Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles and he never looked back! He and all the saints of God were struck by grace and a call to “put on the new man”, a call to truly be a creature of God and answer the call to holiness, an invitation they all whole heartedly accepted. They put on Jesus Christ, the New Man par excellence. They began living Christ by seeking the Father’s will in everything, by following the commandments, frequenting the sacraments, growing in virtue and by spreading the Gospel of hope to every creature they encountered first of all by example but also by words if needed. And now they possess the infinite joy of the beatific vision—seeing God face to face— for all eternity! In today’s gospel we have the parable of the Wedding Feast. This corresponds well with the epistle in that we have ALL been invited, we have ALL been called to live out our baptismal promises. In the parable the king was angry over those who put worldly things as more important than his invitation. Let us not put earthly things above our call to love God!

Like St. Paul put on the New Man!

RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY 2nd COLLECTION

Today we will take up this Archdiocesan collection.

AN ELECTION PRAYER TO MARY

(DON'T READ IT - PRAY IT!)

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. O Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son. Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection. Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this country was founded and that He alone is the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new culture of life. Amen!

PRAY THE ROSARY EVERYDAY FOR OUR COUNTRY AND FOR THE ELECTIONS!

For the next President, for the next Supreme Court Justice, the next House and Senate.

All three branches of government are at stake! It will be a fight with lots of drama!
