3rd Sunday of Advent

GAUDETE SUNDAY!

As you can tell by the altar flowers, rose vestments and the rose candle burning in the Advent Wreath, today is Gaudete Sunday. "Gaudete" is the Latin imperative form of the verb "to rejoice". "Rejoice in the Lord always again I say rejoice". Quite astonishing are these words from today's epistle when we realize that St. Paul wrote them from a prison cell in Rome! The joy St. Paul urges the Philippians—and us today—to practice is the spiritual joy which comes from the knowledge that as Catholics we are incorporated into the Mystical Body of Christ whose present gifts of grace and promise of future glory are sufficient at all times to secure a ready and joyful acceptance of God's will in adversity as well as prosperity. St. Paul rejoices in prison because his chains have turned out to be the means of spreading the Gospel to others and therefore a means to his own salvation as well. We rejoice today because the preparation time called Advent will soon be over and the celebration will soon begin!!
The Christ Child is coming! Are you ready?

KEEP CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS! BUT KEEP CHRISTMAS OUT OF ADVENT!!

While the whole world seems to begin celebrating Christmas after Thanksgiving let us remember Advent is NOT a time of celebration but a time of preparation! Yes we can begin setting up for Christmas, writing cards and buying gifts but let's remember whose birthday we will be celebrating December 25th. Prepare for His coming like Our Blessed Mother did :through Prayer, penance and serving others! Let's make this a MARY Christmas!

BIG TURNOUT FOR RORATE MASS!
A HUGE THANK YOU GOES OUT TO THE CHOIR , THE ALTAR SERVERS AND ALL WHO ATTENDED THE RORATE MASS
SATURDAY. IT WAS BEAUTIFUL! Beginning in just candlelight this votive Mass devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary symbolizes the darkness of the world before Christ, and how she through her fiat dispelled that deep darkness by bringing forth the Light of the World.
On this Gaudete Sunday we anxiously await the Light of the World , the coming of our Savior to dispel the darkness of 2020 and shine forth hope for a bright tomorrow. Like Mary let us make our Fiat so that we too can become instruments of the light of Christ!
Remember that all the darkness of the world cannot dispel the light of even one small candle. Let your light shine before men!

needed are small, simple and inexpensive. Please place your donated items in the plastic bins locat-

stage in the basement by the 1st of January.
Please consider sharing what you can to help
mothers & their babies have a little brighter
