Especially with those who are wearing masks and have returned after a long hiatus since they are especially vulnerable to the Covid virus. PLEASE GIVE THEM THEIR SPACE! Let us continue to pray for an end to the pandemic and a return to normalcy! The Archbishop has allowed use of the Holy Water fonts. Our Usher Steve and his assistant will make sure it is clean. ## THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

On this Third Sunday After Easter we continue to rejoice in the Resurrection of Our Lord. The Gospel takes us back to Holy Thursday and the upper room. Our Savior is about to face the ordeal of His passion which He as God knew to the minutest detail. Yet He forgets His own mental sufferings and devotes His last hours before His passion to strengthening and encouraging the disciples. We too are included in that all embracing Divine Love of Christ. He says to us as well "a little while and you shall not see Me ...you shall weep and lament and the world shall rejoice". How true in this post Christian era! It seems that evil is called good and good is called evil. However, this is when we must remember the second part of His prophesy "your sorrow shall be turned into joy...and your joy no one shall take from you."

If we persevere through the dark hour of our trial, if we bear with our Good Friday, the Sun of Easter morning will shine upon us! Let us never forget that we as Christians are called on to carry our cross, to imitate our Master but also we have His Divine assurance that our crosses will be changed into crowns of eternal glory & that our earthly short lived sorrows will be turned into everlasting joy!

Our Lady promised Sr. Lucia "I promise to assist at the hour of death with the grace necessary for salvation all those who, with the intention of making reparation to me, will, on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the beads, and keep me company for 15 minutes while meditating on the rosary." Again what a deal!! Be sure to make the Five First Saturdays in reparation for sins!!

- Blessed are they who understand; My faltering step and palsied hand
- Blessed are they who know that my ears today; Must strain to catch the words they say
- Blessed are they who seem to know: That my eyes are dim and my wits are slow
- Blessed are they who looked away: when coffee spilled at table today
- Blessed are they with cheery smile: Who stop to chat for a little while
- Blessed are they who never say; "You've told that story twice today
- Blessed are they who know the ways: To bring back memories of yesterdays
- Blessed are they who make it known: That I am loved, respected and not alone.
- Blessed are they who know I am at a loss: to find the strength to carry the cross.
- Blessed are they who ease the days: On my journey Home in loving ways!

SATURDAY MAY 1ST
ST. JOSEPH- THE WORKER

We will offer a High Mass at 9AM. Pope Pius XII used the example of St. Joseph to counter the communist idea of a worker who simply exists for the state. St. Joseph is the ideal workman whose faith, prayer and hard work also earn for him the title of Patron of a Happy Death as well. Let us learn from St. Joseph !
