Eighth Sunday After Pentecost

Today's Gospel is the Parable of the Unjust Steward. Our Lord calls to our mind that there will indeed be a day of reckoning. Are we prepared for that day? If we take the scripture literally we could think Jesus is actually telling us it is okay to break the 7th and 8th commandments. But taken in context of all the scriptures we see that this is indeed NOT the case. In the parable the master commends the steward not for his lying and stealing but for his cunning and his foresight to prepare for the future! We are stewards of God's gifts. He has given us body, soul and intellect to use according to His intentions. We can squander these gifts or use them for His greater glory but we too shall have a day of reckoning. And it is nearer than we think! We will be called to render an account of our stewardship of God's gifts. Have we used them wisely as true children of God who know the true purpose of life—to know, to love, to serve God in this life so we can be happy with Him forever in the next? While we still have time we can put our accounts in order. We can erase all our past mistakes and dishonest acts with a true, sincere confession, penances, reception of the sacraments and indulgences that Mother Church offers us. We can prepare ourselves for that day by surrendering our earthly freedom to God, by living as His children so that we will be able to stand before Him, the Just Judge, when the time comes. How sweet to hear those words "well done good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Master!" The Good Thief, just before his death was able to take advantage of Christ's presence next to Him and while everyone else was mocking and spitting on Him St. Dominus declares Him King and asks a share of His Kingdom. And he hears those most wonderful words "This day you SHALL BE WITH ME IN PARADISE!" Let us too take advantage of the presence of Jesus WITHIN US TODAY! Let us too - STEAL HEAVEN!

ALL NIGHT VIGIL SIGN UP AT CHURCH ENTRANCES!

Please sign up for at least one hour of our all night vigil to be held Aug 13th -14th before the Blessed sacrament! We certainly need His grace!!

Statement Regarding “Traditionis Custodes”

“With the publication of Pope Francis’ latest motu proprio, Traditionis custodes, which has placed new restrictions on the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, many of us are disheartened and anxious. At this point, it is too early to tell what all the implications will be for the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, but we assure you that we remain committed to serving the faithful attending our apostolates in accordance with our Constitutions and charism as we have done since our founding. We must strive to see this Cross as a means of our sanctification, and to remember that God will never abandon His Church. Our Lord Himself promises us the necessary graces to bear our Crosses with strength and courage. We must not, however, neglect to do our part as faithful Catholics; let us pray and offer sacrifices in our daily lives, and trust in the intercession of Our Lady, St. Joseph, and our patron” St. Peter. May God bless you all”,
Fr. William Lawrence FSSP
(North American Provincial)

PLEASE PRAY AND DO NOT WORRY! This is in God’s hands! Please be careful of Facebook, blogs or googlegroups who attack the Pope or any Bishops or priests! These are NOT Holy Family sites Remember “For our struggle is not against flesh and blood” (EPH 6:12) We sure have the devil angry about something! We must be doing our job and being a threat to him to even get our Holy Father to restrict the Latin Mass! Again it is NOT the Pope, Cardinals or Bishops whom we are fighting against! Prayer is our greatest weapon especially the rosary!!

FREE BLESSED ST. JOSEPH MEDALS!

A parish family donated 500 St. Joseph medals in his honor! They have been blessed & placed at the entrances of the Church.
THANK YOU PARISH FAMILY!

SECOND COLLECTION TODAY

Today will be the Peters Pence Collection since we celebrated our Patronal Feast on the 29th.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL WHO WERE ENROLLED IN THE BROWN SCAPULAR FRIDAY!

Our Lady of Mount Carmel promised “whosoever dies wearing this scapular shall not suffer the eternal fire.” It is one of the most powerful of sacramentals as attributed to by so many miracles.

(The above picture was taken when the 1st Communicants were enrolled before their 1st confession!) Remember to not just wear the Brown Scapular but LIVE THE BROWN SCAPULAR! In these “interesting times” let us recall when wearing the Brown Scapular we have HER motherly arms around us!

Thanks to Pinnacle Flagpole for painting and installing our new flag! Thanks also to Bill for replacing the light to illuminate Old Glory! The restoration was funded by Brian Klepacz and Sherry Gordley in honor of their mother Helen and their Aunt Anne Barr who just happened to pass on July 4th of last year! Requiescat in Pace!
