Ninth Sunday After Pentecost

In today's gospel we read the account of Our Lord weeping over Jerusalem. "If thou had known, in this thy day, the things that are for thy peace! For days will come upon thee when thy enemies will throw up a rampart about thee and surround and shut thee in on every side and will dash thee to the ground and thy children within thee and will not leave in thee one stone upon another because thou has not known the time of thy visitation." Our Lord was crying over Jerusalem for being God he knew that of their own free will the high priest and the Sanhedrin, the leaders of what had been "God's Chosen People" were going to reject their own Savior, the one God had sent them to be the Messiah. Because of their rejection they would be destroyed. Jesus' prophesy did come true. Some 40 years later, 70 AD, Titus, the Roman General took Jerusalem, that once Holy City, and after a long siege which caused death by starvation of many hundred thousands of its inhabitants, leveled it to the ground. Thousands of survivors were sold as slaves. The famous Jewish historian, Josephus, wrote: "The whole circuit of the city was so thoroughly leveled and dug up that no one visiting it would believe that it had once been inhabited."

This was the price of disobedience and rejecting God. This was the price of saying we will do what we want. We will be our own gods. By our pride of wanting to have things our own way we too reject God and lose His protection falling into the hands of the enemy by default. Pray for our country, our Church and for ourselves that we do not become like that Jerusalem!

ALL NIGHT VIGIL SIGN UP AT CHURCH ENTRANCES!

Please sign up for at least one hour of our all night vigil to be held Aug 13th -14th before the Blessed sacrament! We certainly need His grace!!

“Traditionis Custodes”

PLEASE PRAY AND DO NOT WORRY!

Archbishop Schnurr has again shown his care for us in officially designating Holy Family as the site for the Latin Mass in the Dayton area. A thank you note would be appropriate! Please pray for the FSSP worldwide and for our seminaries and seminarians that they will be protected. Remember, this is in God's hands! Again, please be sure to stay away from internet sites that attack the Pope or any Bishops or priests! These are NOT Holy Family nor true traditional Catholic Sites. Do they make you angry and depressed or do they lift you up in prayer and holy hope? By their fruits you will know them! Remember “For our struggle is not against flesh and blood” (EPH 6:12) We sure have the devil angry about something! We must be doing our job and being a threat to him to even get our Holy Father to restrict the Latin Mass! Again it is NOT the Pope, Cardinals, Bishops and priests whom we are fighting against! It is Ole Two Horns Himself! REMEMBER WORRY DOES NOTHING TO CHANGE THE FUTURE IT ONLY ROBS TODAY OF ITS STRENGTH!

Prayer is our greatest weapon especially the rosary!! Remember the three promises: “the gates of hell shall not prevail against it” “I am with you all days , to the consummation of the earth “ and “In the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph!”

REQUIESCAT IN PACE

It is with great sadness we announce that John Francis passed from this life last Sunday. Here is a man who truly loved the Church! He had planned on being buried at St. Remy in Russia, Ohio. Since St. Remy is not designated for the Latin Mass we had to ask Archbishop Schnurr to make an exception for his dear family. Our Good Shepherd has granted this permission and the Funeral will be at St. Remy's at 10:30 AM this Tuesday. Since this makes getting back to Holy family by noon impossible the parish Mass this Tuesday will be at 7PM instead of noon. Please keep John, his loving wife Marti and the rest of his family in your prayers!.

GOOD NEWS! WELCOME NEW MEMBERS!!

New Flowers for St. Joseph!!

Did you notice the beautiful new vases of silk flowers flanking St. Joseph? One of our families asked to purchase them especially for this year of St. Joseph. We liked them so much they decided to buy a set for the Blessed Mother too!

Thanks & God Bless you!!!!

PLEASE REMEMBER PROPER DRESS DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS! We are still in the presence of Jesus Christ the King of Kings!!
