The Fifth Sunday After Easter

In today's epistle, James 1:22-27, the apostle reminds us to be "doers of the word and not hearers only". Martin Luther called the letter of St. James a "straw epistle" and would have loved to have removed it from the canon of sacred scripture as he did with many of the old testament books he called apocrapha. He disliked today's epistle because it refutes his "by faith alone" teaching that is still held by most protestants today. Holy Mother Church has taught us through oral tradition and Sacred Scripture that it is NOT by faith or works that we are saved but by GRACE—a free gift from God! However, if we accept this grace we will believe all that Christ has revealed to His Church and will put into action our faith and do good works. We will be "doers and not hearers only". For as St. James tells us "faith without works is dead faith". Our Lord Himself is very clear "whosoever would come after me must deny himself, pick up his cross and follow Me" (MK 8:34). It's NOT enough to just believe, we have to LIVE our Faith and by doing so we will do good works. Faith and good works are consequences and signs that we do have sanctifying grace, the Divine Life within us!
Be doers of the word and not hearers only!

This Thursday is Ascension Thursday!

By the Calendar of 1962 which the Holy Father and the Archbishop allow us to follow, this Thursday is the Feast of the Ascension. On this day we celebrate the glorious human body of Our Redeemer taking His place at the right hand of the Father in heaven!
