The Fourth Sunday of Lent—Laetare Sunday!

As is evident by the rose colored vestments, today is Laetare Sunday. “Laetare” is the imperative form of the Latin verb which means “rejoice”. It is the first word of the introit of today’s Mass taken from Isaia,66:10-11. “Rejoice, O Jerusalem and come together all you who love her. Rejoice you who have been in sorrow that you may exalt and be filled from the abundance of your consolation.”

In today’s liturgy we find the spirit of joy in the midst of penance. We find a rose amidst the prickly thorns of fasting and sacrifice. We rejoice at the thought that “we are children of promise as Isaac was”. Our Creator God has made us His adopted children. We are no longer slaves to sin and death! We are heirs to the greatest kingdom that ever was, is or ever shall be! But before we can enter into that inheritance we need to follow the same path as He who merited it for us. He whose blood has ransomed us from an everlasting bed of thorns in this valley of tears. He whose path is marked out on the very walls of our church, the Stations of the Cross. Jesus says to each one of us. “If any man will come after me let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow Me!”

Make the best of this second half of Lent!

22 days of Lent have passed. Only 18 remain. These final 18 will show who we are: slaves to our passions or free men willing to fast, sacrifice, pray and deny the flesh in order to obtain the Promise of everlasting life! Lent is half over! How have we done so far?

CAN WE DO MORE?!!!

DAYTON RIGHT TO LIFE BABY BOTTLE/FORMULA CAMPAIGN

During this season of Lent, please consider a Corporal Work of Mercy to help mothers who have chosen life for their babies. Dayton Right to Life Baby Bottles are available at the entrances for Holy Family Parishioners to take the bottles home, fill the bottles with coins, cash, and/or checks (made out to “Dayton Right to Life”). Once they are filled, the bottles can be dropped off in the parish hall DRTL pro-life bin on the basement stage or in the church entrance/vestibule. All bottles must be turned in by the Sunday after Easter. Please also consider donating baby formula during Lent. Pick up a can of Enfamil formula (purple or yellow) when you shop for groceries during Lent and place in the DRTL bins. THANK YOU & GOD BLESS!

Lenten spiritual reading—Lending Library

Be sure to add spiritual READING to your Lenten repertoire especially the classics :Sacred Scripture (Douay-Rheims) or Catholic Classics like: The Story of a Soul by St. Therese of Lisieux, The Introduction to the Devout Life by St Francis de Sales, The Imitation of Christ by Thomas A Kempis, The Spiritual Exercises by St. Ignatius of Loyola, Interior Castles by St. Theresa of Avilla, Confessions by St. Augustine and Dark Night of the Soul, St John of the Cross. These are all Catholic Classics available through our Lending Library that every Catholic should read. So much better and proven than modern podcasts! HAVE YOU READ THEM?

Please pray for the sick and the hospitalized!

During Lent things can strike out of nowhere! Last week we were called to the hospital for three separate people for stroke, heart attack, septic infection and another parishioner diagnosed with cancer! They are making their Lent the hard way! Pray!
