The Second Sunday After Easter

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

“I am the Good Shepherd, I know mine and mine know me, even as the Father knows me & I know the Father: & I lay down my life for my sheep”
(JN 10:14)

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters.

3He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. 5You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 6Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

The paschal joy which now permeates our liturgy and hopefully our lives, is inseparable from the freedom from sin and the hope of our participation in divine life with Our Risen Lord. Like a seed this blessed joy is destined to grow and blossom into the Beatific Vision, seeing God face to face IFF we stay near Our Good Shepherd and hear His voice.

Hopefully our Lenten fasts and sacrifices have made us stronger. How are we able to persevere in the joy and grace that we accomplished this past Lent? In the words of St. Peter's epistle today it is by being "strangers and pilgrims" to the things of this world. In other words by not becoming too attached to them.

Let us not fall back but rather continue to grow closer to Christ realizing the pleasures of this world are only transitory. We will have to leave EVERYTHING behind one day including our body! Our first Pope and Good Shepherd to the flock has encouraged us to refrain from carnal desires that war against the soul!

Lent and Easter have been a passage from suffering to joy, from ashes to new life in Christ. Our Lord Himself makes it clear in the Gospel today that His pain and suffering are a prelude of His coming into glory. During our "little while" here on earth we too must suffer but if we stay close to our Good Shepherd our sorrows will also blossom into joy! As He promises us "You therefore have sorrow now but I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice & your joy no one shall take away from you." Just as no one can take away His victory! We looked into the Face of Mercy while making the stations of the cross, Our Lord's face beaten and bloodied, His head crowned with thorns but soon—in a little while—we shall see his Glorious Face, the face of the Good Shepherd who loves us with an infinite love!

This shall be either the GREATEST DAY of our life or the WORST! YOU DECIDE BY HOW YOU LIVE UP UNTIL THAT DAY! Let us therefore continue to be pleasing to Our Good Shepherd. Hear His voice and let Him hear yours. Stay close to Him so we will be ready when He comes!

CONDOLENCES to KEN & LIZ STAGGENBORG ON THE LOSS OF THEIR INFANT DAUGHTER ANDREA. Let us recall a baptized infant goes straight to heaven! We are happy for her but grieve with her parents. God bless you!!
