Fourth Sunday of Advent

By the flames of all four candles burning on the Advent Wreath we can tell that Christmas is almost here! This Thursday we will be celebrating the birth of Our Savior! Let us recall the message that Holy Mother Church made clear to us at the beginning of Advent. We celebrate not only the coming of Our Lord some 2025 years ago, made present again right here at Holy Family Dec. 25th, this Thursday, with special graces available only on this day, but she also reminds us HE WILL COME AGAIN! Then He will come not as a tiny baby but with POWER and MAJESTY at the end of time to assign us the place, above or below, where we will spend all eternity!! It is for this reason she again presents to us the figures of St. Paul and St. John the Baptist. Both gave their life for Christ by "losing their heads" to proclaim who HE is and both died HAPPY deaths knowing they have eternal treasures in heaven! Closing their earthly eyes in martyrdom they opened their spiritual eyes to the Beatific Vision, seeing the face of God for all eternity!!

PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD! SEEK HIS FACE!!!
