Septuagesima Sunday

According to the liturgical calendar for the Extraordinary Form today is Septuagesima Sunday. The Season of Septuagesima is the two and a half weeks leading to Ash Wednesday (Feb 18) which is the beginning of Lent, also known as "Quadragesima".

Today we see the liturgical emphasis starts to dim the joys of Christ's birth—as you have no doubt noticed the priest wears violet vestments which is a penitential color. The joys of Christmas and Epiphany are now slowly giving way to the realization of WHY He came to earth and the heavy price the Christ Child will have to pay in order to redeem us. This year the seasons overlap a bit. We will hear it foretold to the Blessed Mother by Holy Simeon tomorrow on the Feast of the Purification, the official end of Christmastide, "Behold this child is destined for the fall and for the rise of many in Israel and for a sign that shall be contradicted. And thy own soul a sword shall pierce that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed". The Season of Septuagesima is therefore a preparation for Lent. It serves as a time of transition, a liturgical "buffer", by which the Christian soul may pass from Christmas joys to the stern penance of the sacred forty days. Liturgically we see the white vestments of Christmas and Epiphany, symbols of joy, change into the penitential color of violet. We also notice the absence of the "Gloria" on Sundays and feria days of the season as well as the total suppression of the "Alleluia" throughout the season until it is sung again three times at the Easter Vigil demonstrating the great joy of the Resurrection of Our Lord and His victory over sin and death! But first we will do penance following Christ from the desert the first Sunday of Lent to the cross on Good Friday. Thus this liturgical Season of Septuagesima invites us to begin thinking about what we are going to give up (food, drink, games, bad habits, TV & internet etc.) and what we are going to do positively (adoration, prayers, alms, works of mercy, spiritual reading, virtues, etc.) during this coming Lent for the love of Our Dear Lord who came into the world that first Christmas with the sole purpose to suffer and die for love of us! Pray to the Holy Spirit, the Sanctifier for inspiration!

As we wrap up the season of Christmastide tomorrow, let us begin to prepare for Lent 2026!!!
