EXTERNAL SOLEMNITY OF THE SACRED HEART

This feast was instituted to demonstrate God's infinite love for mankind. During the 16th and 17th centuries Protestantism and Jansenism had distorted this essential belief of Christianity. In order to make this worship public God rose up St. John Eudes who in 1672 composed the Mass and Divine Office for the Feast of the Sacred Heart. Just 3 years later on June 16, 1675, Our Lord appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque at Paray de Monial in France and asked her to make known His wish for greater devotion to His Sacred Heart and through her establish a universal feast. His message to us was twofold. First His love for us through the Sacred Heart—source of all love is infinite! However the second part of the message is not so joyful for although He has literally opened up His Sacred Heart to all of us, that love is overwhelming met with ingratitude from the Human race! The Friday following the former octave of Corpus Christi has become the day it is now celebrated throughout the Universal Church. In addition Jesus asked St Margaret Mary to request King Louis XIV, the Sun King, the most powerful monarch of that time, to consecrate France to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Whether out of pride or lack of faith he refused. The consequences of his inaction included France becoming entangled in war and losing her preeminent status that she had enjoyed. The internal civil strife that resulted from the lack of divine protection culminated in the French Revolution with the aims of not only regicide—the beheading of the King and the monarchy but also Decide which the Enlightenment tried to do away with God creating a humanism that continues to this day. Man has become the center of the universe that creates God in his image and likeness instead of the contrary truth of the existence and providence of God. The Basilica of Sacre Coeur in Paris was consecrated in 1919 in reparation for the sins of France! Jesus also revealed to St. Margaret Mary His 12 promises which includes eternal salvation that He grants to all those who make First Friday Devotions for 9 consecutive months! What a deal for so small a sacrifice! Jesus meek and humble of heart make our hearts like unto Thine!
